

CELEBRATING THE 5th of NOVEMBER
GUY FAWKES and...

In 1605, when Queen Elizabeth the 1st died, James the 1st became king and there were quarrels between Catholic people and the Protestants. In fact, James was not tolerant with the Catholic, so that they decided to fight for their faith... Guy Fawkes was one of the Catholic rebels...

REMEMBER REMEMBER THE 5th OF NOVEMBER

1605

Remember, remember the Fifth of November,
Gunpowder Treason and Plot,
We see no reason
Why Gunpowder Treason
Should ever be forgot.

this is a famous rhyme

Happy Guy Fawkes Day !

one penny for
the Guy please!

children use sparklers

Bonfire night in London

I WILL KILL THE KING AND ALL THE PARLIAMENT!

IN THE END, BECAUSE OF A SPY AMONG THE REBELS, GUY FAWKES AND HIS COMPANIONS WERE ARRESTED...

THE END OF MR. GUY FAWKES

Fawkes was sent to trial, found guilty and sentenced to death by hanging. Immediately before his execution on 31 January, Fawkes jumped from the scaffold where he was to be hanged and broke his neck.

From British History to comics&cinema
to Politics

Guy's mask

Today the mask inspired to Guy Fawkes is used during Halloween festivals as a scary costume.

In 1982 an illustrator created it for a famous Comic book but the mask became really popular in 2005 after the movie "V for Vengeance".

Sice then it has been used as a symbol of rebellion and political opposition in some places and demonstrations.